
Your Wedding Day at the Dunraven

Having been in the loving care of the Murphy family for almost four decades, the Dunraven Hotel is the ideal location for the most exciting day of your life. Our experienced team offers a professional service while also tailoring the experience to suit you and your guests. We believe every wedding should be personal, fun and of course beautiful. Adare is home to two of the most striking and historic churches in Ireland, the Holy Trinity Abbey and St Nicholas Church of Ireland that are available for your ceremony and are both within walking distance of the hotel. We are also able to host civil ceremonies at the Dunraven.

From the Dunraven family to the Murphy family and now to yours, to share with your family and friends. Nestled in the picturesque village of Adare the original building dates to 1792 and was commissioned by Lady Caroline Wyndham and drawn up by the brothers Pain who also designed Adare Manor, Dromoland Castle, and the Holy Trinity Church Cork. The site was formerly two Georgian houses and a post office purpose built for the Manor estate. With the 4th Earl of Dunraven these houses were converted into the façade you see today. The Dunraven hotel was born at a time when public transport was beginning in Ireland under the expertise of Mr. Bianconi an Italian entrepreneur. During these inaugural years, the Dunraven was used as a stopping point for horse drawn carriages on their way to Kerry. In 1952 Lady Dunraven took charge of the hotel and under her watch the hotel welcomed some of its most noted guests including Princess Grace of Monaco with her family.

The hotel has been in the care of the Murphy family since the 1970's. Additions have been made to the original structure and today the hotel boasts 87 elegantly designed and recently refurbished rooms and suites, beautifully manicured gardens, and a Leisure Centre with a 17m pool, sauna and fully equipped fitness centre. Throughout the years the hotel has thrived and continues to be an integral part of the landscape in Adare, Ireland's prettiest village.

Hugh and Louis Murphy will oversee your special wedding day in our light filled ballroom which overlooks the handsome lawns of the hotel. From your initial consultation to the day itself, we will ensure the highest level of attention and service. We only cater for one wedding a day thus ensuring your day is our only focus of attention.

Our menus have a great deal of thought put into them. We are all about flexibility and making sure you have the experience you dream of. Our chefs source the freshest local ingredients to create what we hope you will agree is delicious food. Only at the Dunraven will your guests experience our team carving the Prime Roast Rib of Beef in our ballroom 'as you like it'. We are very proud of our team, their experience and passion at delivering consistently excellent service is what we hope sets us apart. You will find a series of menus that will give you a strong indication of the sort of thing that we do. Feel free to choose from here but you can also mix and match and ask our chefs to do things differently.... It's up to you. It's your special occasion.
